FIVE STAR
CUSTOMER RATING

We all have a story. Here's mine.

by Chris Earley

I was born into a dysfunctional environment. My father at the time in 1976 was literally falling apart due to a severe and crippling alcohol addiction. The man who I get my nerve and entrepreneurial genes from, and who owned a thriving executive recruitment business right in the center of Manhattan, would 7 years later become literally homeless and living on the streets of Manhattan, begging for money.

He lost everything.

We are not sure how or when he died, but it was around 1987, we believe, on the streets of New York City. He could have had it all, but addiction is real and ruins the lives of good people every single day. Addiction doesn't discriminate.

The stats show that I was more likely than not headed for a life of failure. In elementary school I was a class clown and constantly getting into trouble.

My Mom did everything she possibly could to help me succeed. She did an incredible job. I am convinced I got my very disciplined work ethic and grit from her. My two brothers are older than me and they taught me while I was growing up very valuable lessons that helped me tremendously in my journey.

Once elementary school ended I started to get serious about school. I worked hard in high school. Then college, and then law school. I beat the odds. I succeeded. And I've succeeded not because of the career or business I have built, but because I am a really involved Dad, and I have the most supportive wife possible. I love you, Rory.

I want my family to have everything. Our house is one that is happy, simple, and loving. The way a house is supposed to be. I'm really proud of that success.

My life is the exact and total opposite of how it was 'supposed' to go.

Your story does not have to go in any way other than the way you choose it to go.

Where you came from does not and should not determine where you are GOING.

Life is short and you get one ride on the bus. The bus isn't waiting for you.

What is YOUR story going to be?

RORY'S RECIPES: Ina Garten's Creamy Tomato Soup

Now that the weather is getting a little cooler, what is better than a hot cup of soup? Ina Garten has mastered the comfort food game and has the most amazing creamy tomato soup! I love this soup & her so much that Chris and I had this soup with tiny grilled cheese served at our wedding.

Adding grilled cheese on the side or cut up into croutons is an absolute must!

INGREDIENTS:

- 3 tablespoons good olive oil
- 3 cups yellow onions, chopped (2 onions)
- 1 tablespoon minced garlic (3 cloves)
- 4 cups chicken stock, preferably homemade
- 1 (28-ounce) can crushed tomatoes, preferably San Marzano
- Large pinch of saffron threads
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 1/2 cup orzo
- 1/2 cup heavy cream
- Grilled cheese sandwiches, cut into croutons

DIRECTIONS:

- 1 In a large pot or Dutch oven such as Le Creuset, heat the olive oil over medium heat. Add the onions and cook over medium-low heat for 15 minutes, stirring occasionally, until golden brown. Add the garlic and cook for 1 more minute. Stir in the chicken stock, tomatoes, saffron, 1 tablespoon salt, and 1 teaspoon pepper. Bring the soup to a boil, then lower the heat and simmer for 15 minutes.
- 2 Meanwhile, fill a medium pot with water, add 2 teaspoons salt, and bring to a boil. Add the orzo and cook for 7 minutes. (It will finish cooking in the soup.) Drain the orzo and add it to the soup. Stir in the cream, return the soup to a simmer, and cook for 10 more minutes, stirring frequently.
- 3 Serve hot with grilled cheese croutons scattered on top. ■

AN UNEXPECTED REMINDER

I recently flew early one morning to Washington, DC and raced from the airport to get to a meeting in time.

I reached the meeting venue, sat down, and got all serious and ready to get down to business.

I opened my notebook and found this picture that Rory had secretly planted. Suddenly, my really important meeting didn't seem so important after all.

"Christopher Earley went out of his way to make the experience following my accident trauma as easy as possible."

"Working with Christopher on my case was absolutely perfect. Christopher went out of his way to make the experience following my accident trauma as easy as possible. I provided him and his staff with what was needed and everything was taken care of with absolutely no inconvenience or hassle. Both Christopher and his staff were very polite and easy to contact and communicate with. I have had bad luck in the past with working with lawyers who do not have my best interest. I will always work with and confide in Christopher in the future in regards to his arena of law. This was an outstanding experience with which I would repeat again without question. Thank you Christopher! Excellent work!"
